

Northeastern RTO, as proposed, would include the New York and New England ISOs. The Ontario Independent Market Operator and New Brunswick Power Co. have announced their interest in participating as well.