Dear Mr. Statman:

1. On September 12, 2014, Trans Bay Cable, LLC (Trans Bay) submitted an Offer of Settlement and Stipulation (Settlement) in the above-captioned proceedings, which resolves all issues set for hearing. On September 24, 2014, Commission Trial Staff filed Comments in support of the Settlement. No Reply Comments were filed. On September 30, 2014, the Settlement Judge certified the Settlement as uncontested to the Commission.<sup>1</sup>

2. The Settlement resolves revisions to Trans Bay's Transmission Revenue Requirement associated with Trans Bay's high-voltage, direct-current submarine transmission project.

<sup>1</sup> Trans Bay Cable, LLC, 148 FERC ¶ 63,020 (2014).

3. Section 8.10 of the Settlement states in part:

The standard of review for any modifications to this Settlement requested by a Party that is not either agreed to or unopposed by all of the Parties shall be the “public interest” standard of review. The standard of review for any modifications to this Settlement requested by a non-party or initiated by the Commission on its own motion shall be the “just and reasonable” standard of review. The Parties also acknowledge that the “public interest” standard applicable to this Settlement shall not adversely impact any Party’s ability to challenge future filings by Trans Bay under a “just and reasonable” standard of review.

4. The Settlement appears to be fair and reasonable and in the public interest, and is hereby approved. The Commission’s approval of the Settlement does not constitute approval of, or precedent regarding, any principle or issue in this proceeding.

5. The Settlement was not filed in the eTariff format required by Order No. 714. Therefore, Trans Bay is required to make a compliance filing within 30 days of the date of this order in eTariff format to reflect the Commission’s action in this order. See Electronic Tariff Filings, Order No. 714, FERC Stats. & Regs. ¶ 31,276 (2008).

6. This letter terminates Docket Nos. ER13-2412-000 and EL14-15-000.

By direction of the Commission.

Kimberly D. Bose,
Secretary.
