

Federal Energy Regulatory Commission

Plain Writing Act Compliance Report

July 13, 2011

I. Senior Agency Official for Plain Writing:

- a. Name of Senior Agency Official responsible for Plain Writing:
Mary O'Driscoll (Mary.O'Driscoll@ferc.gov, 202-502-6088)
- b. Names of Plain Language coordinators within the agency. FERC is a small agency and no additional coordinators are needed.

II. Explain what specific types of agency communications have you released by making them available in a format that is consistent with the Plain Writing guidelines.

Type of communications of document or posting. List how this is made available to the public	Who is the intended user and approximate number of potential users	What has changed by using Plain Writing
News Releases and Fact Sheets (made available via webpage with a print function)	Media, stakeholders and general public (150 members of the media, more than 800 stakeholders and unknown for general public)	Active voice, explain technical terms in English

III. Inform agency staff of Plain Writing Act's requirements:

[list the ways you've provided information on the Act to your staff]

- a. Information on the Act is posted on the agency intranet (FERCNet)
- b. Published an article on the Act and its requirements in the internal agency monthly news bulletin.
- c. Emails to staff

IV. Training

Currently FERC is in the process of developing our training program. Our program will consist of the following elements:

1. Senior Management briefing by the PlainLanguage.gov staff, we are currently working on dates with them for this.
2. FERC is also working with PlainLanguage.gov staff to set up a class for our most frequent public writers.
3. We are launching a training site on our intranet with materials and examples for all of staff.

b. Agency provided the following trainings: N/A see above

Type of Training	Number of employees trained	Date
In house (agency Staff or contractor) – live
PLAIN provided training – live
Webinars
Online training

V. Ongoing compliance/ sustaining change

FERC is a small independent agency and the materials that are covered will be reviewed by our Plan Language coordinator and her staff.

- a. Name of agency contact for compliance issues: Mary O’Driscoll
- b. Documenting and reporting use of plain writing in agency communications: All web pages currently are written with the governance of plan language and will continue to be. All web material is either written or reviewed by the Plain Language Coordinators team.
- c. Clearance process: All reports, correspondence and web posting are currently cleared through the Office of External Affairs for dissemination, and the Plain Language Coordinator works within this office so the review process has been in place for four years.

VI. Agency's plain writing website

[provide information on your website and include links to it]

- a. Website address - <http://www.ferc.gov/open/plain-language.asp>
- b. Contact Us page: <http://www.ferc.gov/contact-us/contact-us.asp>
- c. Implementation of the Act (see <http://www.ferc.gov/open/plain-language.asp>)
  - i. Documents covered by the Act
  - ii. Timeline
- d. Links to Compliance reports (see <http://www.ferc.gov/open/plain-language.asp>)
- e. Links to OMB and PLAIN (see <http://www.ferc.gov/open/plain-language.asp>)

VII. Customer Satisfaction Evaluation after Experiencing Plain Writing Communications

[provide documentation on how you have measured the effectiveness of your use of Plain Writing in your communication with the public both by hard copy and through posting information on your Agency's website. Provide feedback as to user experience in identifying any noticeable change in comprehension and improved level of service]

We consistently monitor public contacts with the agency regarding "how to" questions that may be difficult to understand on the site; these contacts are reviewed periodically and are used to help determine whether we should pursue revisions. We plan to seek funding for a new online survey that will measure public satisfaction with the site.